

The Space-Time Interaction between the Rule of Virtue and the Rule of Law

Chiang Kai-Shek's Thought of Law and Governance during the Formation of the Rule of Law in Chinese Society

Chien-Yuan Tseng

Abstract

Kuomintang's Governance is the first rule by party in China. At any rate, it had built a modern legal system which was succeeded in Taiwan up to now. What we want to discuss is how the idea of the rule of virtue of the Chinese traditional cultural value effect Kuomintang to erect the modern rule of law state. This article focuses mainly on Chiang Kai-Shek's thought of law and governance and anticipates to provide a dialogue between the two Chinese party-states in the contemporary mainland China.

Keywords: rule of law, rule of virtue, rule by party, Chiang Kai-Shek, Confucianism